The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences Announces Winners for The 41st Annual Daytime Emmy® Awards

Webcast Live from the Beverly Hilton Hotel Hosted by Kathy Griffin

Los Angeles, CA – June 22, 2014 – The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS) tonight announced the winners of the 41st Annual Daytime Emmy® Awards in a sold-out gala for over 1,000 attendees at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Beverly Hills, California.

“We are very excited to have Kathy leading our ceremony this year,” said Malachy Wienges, Chairman of The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. “She is a beloved figure in the community and with our first “live” telecast seen worldwide, produced by Spike Jones and SJ2 Entertainment, we know that audiences were laughing the night away around the globe as we honored the brightest stars in our industry”

This was the first time in its history that the prestigious organization utilized streaming technology, provided by Livestream LLC, to webcast the awards show engaging a world-wide audience in an event which celebrates programs that are known internationally and boast a global fan base. Emmy® Awards were handed out in twenty-four categories, including several new ones celebrating Spanish-speaking media.

NATAS also connected with viewers through HERE Media and their social media platforms, enlisting the help of several social media ambassadors to capture special moments on-site and share them via Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Vine and YouTube.

The Daytime Entertainment Emmy® Awards recognize outstanding achievement in all fields of daytime television production and are presented to individuals and programs broadcast from 2:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. during the 2013 calendar year.

The 41st Annual Daytime Emmy® Awards is a presentation of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences in cooperation with the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (ATAS).
