

THE 22nd ANNUAL NEWS AND DOCUMENTARY EMMY AWARD NOMINATIONS

IMMEDIATE RELEASE
07/19/01 (revised 8/24/01)

THE 22nd ANNUAL NEWS AND DOCUMENTARY EMMY AWARD NOMINEES ANNOUNCED BY THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF TELEVISION ARTS AND SCIENCES

New York, July 19, 2001 -- The 22nd Annual News and Documentary Emmy Award nominees were announced today by Bill Small, Vice Chairman for News and Documentaries of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. The awards recognize outstanding achievement by individuals and programs broadcast during the 2000 calendar year.

"The near record number of entries for the News and Documentary Emmy Awards reflect the continuing robust nature of television news in the United States," observed Mr. Small. "With almost 1450 entries this year and a total of 121 nominations, it is clear that American broadcasters continue their commitment to informing the public during a period of expanding programming opportunities"

A black-tie dinner and ceremony is scheduled on Wednesday, September 5th at the Marriott Marquis Hotel's Broadway Ballroom, New York City. The ceremony will be hosted by noted broadcast journalist Charles Osgood, and prominent national and international newsmakers will present the coveted Emmy awards.

The numerical breakdown, by broadcast and cable entities, as compiled by the independent accountancy firm of Lutz and Carr, LLP, follows:

PBS	26	Discovery	5
CBS	24	HBO	2
ABC	18	MSNBC	2
NBC	13	Syndicated	3
CNBC	9	Animal Planet	1
Cinemax	5	HBO Signature	1
CNN	5	MTV	1
TLC	5	VH1	1

A complete list of the 22nd Annual News and Documentary Emmy Award nominations is available for viewing and downloading on the academy's web site at www.emmyonline.org.

Requests for additions and corrections should be received no later than Friday, August 3, 2001. Send all requests to newsdocemmy@aol.com.

The 22nd Annual News and Documentary Emmy Awards is presented by the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, a non-profit organization dedicated to the advancement of television.
