THE 24th ANNUAL NEWS AND DOCUMENTARY EMMY AWARD NOMINEES ANNOUNCED TODAY BY THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF TELEVISION ARTS AND SCIENCES

Lifetime Achievement Award to be Presented to 60 Minutes Creator and Executive Producer Don Hewitt and Past and Present Correspondents and Producers

New York, July 14, 2003 -- The 24th Annual News and Documentary Emmy Award nominees were announced today by Peter O. Price, President of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. The awards recognize outstanding achievement by individuals and programs broadcast during the 2002 calendar year. The News and Documentary Emmy Awards will be presented at a black-tie dinner and ceremony on Wednesday evening, September 3, 2003 at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in New York City.

“This year’s nominations illustrate the excellent work currently being done in the field of news & documentary,” said Price. “The hard news nominees showcase remarkable reporting on such diverse topics as international terrorism, airport security, the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, the arrest of the D.C. snipers, the brutal conflict in the Congo, and the rescue of the Pennsylvania miners. The breadth of coverage in the documentary area is equally impressive, ranging from a five-part series on the human brain to a portrait of the celebrated American landscape photographer Ansel Adams.”

“We received nearly 1,500 entries, one of the largest numbers ever,” said Bill Small, Vice Chairman for News and Documentaries. “The number and range of entries demonstrate that quality journalism is alive and well on U.S. television.”

The numerical breakdown, by broadcast and cable entities, as compiled by the independent accountancy firm of Lutz and Carr, LLP, follows:

PBS	31	A&E	1
CBS	19	Animal Planet	1
ABC	18	CNBC	1
NBC	18	Discovery Health	1
MSNBC	13	KGO	1
CNN	6	KUSA	1
Discovery Channel	5	WBNS	1
History Channel	4	WBZ	1
Cinemax	3	WCPO	1
HBO	3	WFXT	1
TLC	3	WMAQ	1
FOX	2	WTTG	1
National Geographic Channel	2	WTVF	1
Sundance Channel	2

As part of this year's News & Documentary Emmy Awards, a Lifetime Achievement award for News & Documentary will be presented to Don Hewitt, executive producer of the pioneering news magazine 60 Minutes, along with executive editor Phil Scheffler and past and present correspondents Mike Wallace, Harry Reasoner (posthumously), Ed Bradley, Morley Safer, Dan Rather, Andy Rooney, Lesley Stahl, Steve Kroft, Bob Simon, Christiane Amanpour, Diane Sawyer and Meredith Vieira. As part of the Lifetime Achievement Award, the National Television Academy will host a panel discussion with Don Hewitt and current correspondents featuring a look back at 35 years of 60 Minutes. The panel will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Sept. 3, 2003 at Fordham University and will be followed by a luncheon at Lincoln Center in honor of 60 Minutes producers. 60 Minutes celebrates its 35th anniversary in September.

Also at the luncheon, the National Television Academy will honor retiring Associated Press CEO Lou Boccardi. His successor, Tom Curley, formerly president and publisher of USA Today, will make the presentation. Boccardi, who led AP worldwide operations for 18 years, half of his AP career, oversaw the launching of Associated Press Television News (APTN), now the world's largest international video news service.

A complete list of the 24th Annual News and Documentary Emmy Award nominations is available on the academy's web site at www.emmyonline.org.

Requests for additions and corrections should be received no later than Wednesday, July 23, 2003. Send all requests to newsemmy@natasonline.com.

The 24th Annual News and Documentary Emmy Awards is presented by the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, a non-profit organization dedicated to the advancement of television.

###

The National Television Academy, whose total dedication is excellence, is a professional service organization for all aspects of the Television, Cable and Satellite industries. Its symbol of excellence, the Emmy, is awarded in six major national categories including Sports, News/Documentary, Daytime, Technology, and International (through its International Academy). Local Emmys are given in nineteen regions across the United States. Beyond awards, the Academy has extensive educational projects, scholarships, publications, and major activities of impact to both industry professionals and the viewing public itself. For more information, please visit the website at www.emmyonline.org.
