BY THE NATIONAL TELEVISION ACADEMY

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD TO BE PRESENTED TO HBO'S SHEILA NEVINS

NEW YORK, July 7, 2005 -- The 26th Annual News and Documentary Emmy Award nominees were announced today by the National Television Academy. The awards recognize outstanding achievement by individuals and programs broadcast during the 2004 calendar year. The News and Documentary Emmy Awards will be presented at a black-tie dinner and ceremony on Monday evening, September 19, 2005 at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in New York City.

“2004 was a significant year for major news stories including the presidential election, the war in Iraq and the Asian tsunami disaster,” said Peter Price, President of the National Television Academy. “This year’s entries and nominees showcase remarkable reporting on these events and highlight a year of extraordinary coverage.”

“The breadth of coverage in the documentary area this year is exceptional, ranging from the 1994 genocide in Rwanda to the world of competitive Scrabble,” stated Bill Small, Chairman of the News & Documentary Emmys. “The quality is equally impressive, and this year’s Lifetime Achievement recipient, Sheila Nevins, is a reflection of the excellent work demonstrated in the field.”

The numerical breakdown, by broadcast and cable entities, as compiled by the independent accountancy firm of KPMG, follows:
