28th ANNUAL NEWS & DOCUMENTARY EMMY AWARDS
ANNOUNCES WINNERS AT NEW YORK CITY GALA

Lifetime Achievement Award Presented to Discovery's Ted Koppel; FRONTLINE, P.O.V./American Documentary Honored For Excellence

New York, N. Y. – September 24, 2007 (revised 11.21.07) – The 28th Annual News & Documentary Emmy[®] Awards were presented by the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences tonight at a black-tie ceremony at the Sheraton New York Hotel and Towers in New York City. One thousand media industry executives, journalists, and producers attended the event which honors outstanding achievement in television journalism by individuals and programs, distributed via broadcast, cable and broadband.

During the ceremony, the Lifetime Achievement Award was given to Ted Koppel, longtime ABC anchor and now Managing Editor of the Discovery Channel and Senior News Analyst at NPR. Presenting his honor were Elie Weisel, novelist, political activist, Nobel Laureate and Holocaust survivor; Jon Stewart, host and Executive Producer, Comedy Central's "The Daily Show with Jon Stewart"; Rick Kaplan, Executive Producer of the "CBS Evening News with Katie Couric" and former Sr. Vice President of ABC News, where he oversaw "Nightline" among other news programming; Grace Anne Koppel, Ted Koppel's wife and national spokeswoman and patient advocate for the National Institutes of Health, tasked with raising public awareness about Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD); Tom Bettag, executive producer of "Koppel on Discovery" and longtime producer of ABC's "Nightline"; and Leroy Sievers, former executive producer of ABC's "Nightline" and NPR reporter who has chronicled his battle with cancer.

Two of PBS's flagship documentary series, FRONTLINE and P.O.V./American Documentary, were also honored with a Special Award for Excellence in Television Documentary Filmmaking, presented by Paula Kerger, President & CEO, Public Broadcasting Service (PBS). FRONTLINE, which will mark its 25th anniversary in January 2008, was honored for more than 24 years of outstanding long-form public affairs documentaries. Accepting the award for FRONTLINE was Executive Producer David Fanning. P.O.V./American Documentary, which is in its 20th season on PBS this year, was commended for its two decades as a showcase for outstanding independent documentary films. Accepting the award for P.O.V./American Documentary were Executive Director Simon Kilmurry and Vice President Cynthia Lopez.

The evening featured an impressive line-up of prominent newsmakers and industry executives, including Tim Russert, Senior Vice President and Washington Bureau Chief, NBC News and Moderator of NBC's "Meet the Press"; Katie Couric, anchor of the "CBS Evening News with Katie Couric"; Dan Rather, host of HDNet's news program, "Dan Rather Reports"; Bob Woodruff, ABC News Anchor; Sheila Nevins, President, HBO Documentary Films; Soledad O'Brien, CNN Anchor and Special Correspondent for CNN: Special Investigations Unit; and Pedro Sevcec, anchor and managing editor of "Noticiero Telemundo," who presented the awards to a distinguished group of broadcast journalists.

During the evening, Emmy Awards for news and documentary programming were presented in 32 categories, including four Emmy Awards for content created specifically for broadband. Sponsors for the 28th Annual News & Documentary Emmy Awards included Grass Valley, a Thomson brand, and Television Week, the print partner. Results for the News & Documentary Emmy Awards were tabulated by the independent accountancy firm of Lutz & Carr LLP.

Two Emmy Awards were presented to international news organizations in the categories of News & Current Affairs by the International Academy of Television Arts & Sciences. International Emmy Awards are tabulated by the international accounting firm Ernst & Young.

The 28th Annual News & Documentary Awards will be telecast on C-Span at a later date to be announced.

The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS) is a professional service organization dedicated to the advancement of the arts and sciences of television and the promotion of creative leadership for artistic, educational and technical achievements within the television industry. It recognizes excellence in television with the coveted Emmy Award for News & Documentary, Sports, Daytime Entertainment, Daytime Creative Arts & Entertainment, Public & Community Service, Technology & Engineering, and Business & Financial Reporting. Beginning in 2006, NATAS began recognizing programming produced for the Internet, cell phones, and portable media players with its new Broadband Emmy Award for Outstanding Achievement in Content for Broadband and Portable Delivery. Excellence in Primetime programming and international programming is recognized by its affiliate, the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences. Regional Emmys are given in 19 regions across the United States. Beyond awards, NATAS has extensive educational programs including National Student Television and its Student Award for Excellence for outstanding journalistic work by high school students, as well as scholarships, publications, and major activities for both industry professionals and the viewing public.
