WINNERS OF 30th ANNUAL SPORTS EMMY® AWARDS ANNOUNCED BY
NATIONAL ACADEMY OF TELEVISION
ARTS & SCIENCES

Dick Ebersol Honored with Lifetime Achievement Award

New York, NY – April 27, 2009 – The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (NATAS) announced the winners tonight of the 30th Annual Sports Emmy® Awards at a special ceremony at Frederick P. Rose Hall, Home of Jazz at Lincoln Center in New York City.

The awards were presented by a distinguished group of sports figures and television personalities including Cris Collinsworth (sports analyst for NBC's NFL coverage); Dan Hicks (NBC's primary Golf analyst); Jim Nantz (lead play-by-play announcer of The NFL on CBS and play-by-play broadcaster for NCAA college basketball and Golf on CBS); James Brown (host of The NFL Today on CBS and co-host of Inside the NFL on Showtime); Joe Buck (sports announcer for FOX Sports NFL and MLB); Tim McCarver (two time- St. Louis Cardinals World Series Champion and sports announcer for MLB on FOX); Karl Ravech (host of Baseball Tonight on ESPN); Hannah Storm (anchor on the new weekday morning editions of SportsCenter, ESPN); Kyle Petty (analyst for TNT's 2008 NASCAR Sprint Cup Series); Dennis Eckersley (Baseball Hall of Fame member and analyst, MLB for TBS and the New England Sports Network); Mary Carillo (an Emmy-Award winning correspondent on HBO's Real Sports and a consultant for HBO Sports' documentary unit); and Max Kellerman (a boxing commentator for HBO's World Championship Boxing and Boxing After Dark).

One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of the Lifetime Achievement Award to Dick Ebersol, Chairman of NBC Sports & Olympics.

Dick Ebersol, who has led NBC Sports for 20 years, is renowned for his ability to amass large television audiences. Most recently, Ebersol architected two record-breaking television events: The Beijing Olympic Games, the most watched event in U.S. History, and Super Bowl XLIII, which delivered the largest single audience. Remarkably, he has now produced seven of the top ten most-watched events of all time. His crowning achievement has been establishing NBC Universal as the home of the Olympic Games, TV's most powerful franchise, through 2012. He has served as executive producer of every Olympics that NBC has broadcast since 1992. Ebersol also has served as executive producer for five Super Bowls and is executive producer for "Sunday Night Football." He negotiated the landmark NFL deal which saw the League's premier primetime package move to Sunday night and includes innovative flexible scheduling.

Winners in 32 categories including outstanding live sports special, sports documentary, studio show, play-by-play personality, and studio analyst were honored. The Sports Emmy® Award recipients were chosen by a Blue Ribbon Panel of their peers from over 750 entries. The awards recognize outstanding achievement by individuals and programs broadcast throughout the 2008 calendar year.

American Airlines and Grass Valley are the official sponsors of the 30th Annual Sports Emmy® Awards. Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal is the exclusive magazine partner.
