THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF TELEVISION ARTS & SCIENCES
ANNOUNCES
WINNERS OF 32nd ANNUAL SPORTS EMMY® AWARDS

Al Michaels Honored with Lifetime Achievement Award

New York, NY - May 2, 2011 - The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (NATAS) announced the winners tonight of the 32nd Annual Sports Emmy® Awards at a special ceremony at Frederick P. Rose Hall, Home of Jazz at Lincoln Center in New York City. Winners in 33 categories including outstanding live sports special, live series, sports documentary, studio show, promotional announcements, play-by-play personality and studio analyst were honored.

The awards were presented by a distinguished group of sports figures and television personalities including Cris Collinsworth (sports analyst for NBC's "Sunday Night Football"); Dan Hicks (NBC's Golf host); Jim Nantz (lead play-by-play announcer of The NFL on CBS and play-by-play broadcaster for NCAA college basketball and golf on CBS); Vern Lundquist (CBS Sports play-by-play broadcaster); Chris Myers (FOX Sports Host); Scott Van Pelt (anchor, ESPN's Sportscenter and ESPN's radio show, "The Scott Van Pelt Show"); Hannah Storm (anchor on the weekday morning editions of ESPN's SportsCenter); Mike Tirico (play-by-play announcer for ESPN's NFL Monday Night Football, and golf on ABC); Bob Papa (HBO Sports Broadcaster); Andrea Kremer (Correspondent, HBO's "Real Sports with Bryant Gumbel"); Ernie Johnson (host of Inside the NBA on TNT); Cal Ripken, Jr. (TNT Sports Analyst and member of Baseball's Hall of Fame); Ron Darling (TNT & TBS MLB Analyst and former star, NY Mets); Hazel Mae (MLB Network host, "Quick Pitch"); Steve Mariucci (Former NFL Coach and NFL Network Analyst); Marshall Faulk (Former NFL Running Back and NFL Network Analyst); and Harold Reynolds (MLB Network Studio Analyst).

One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of the Lifetime Achievement Award to Al Michaels, legendary sports broadcaster.

One of television's most respected journalists, Michaels, the voice of NBC's "Sunday Night Football" since its inception in 2006, has covered more major sports events than any sportscaster, including 20 years as the play-by-play voice of "Monday Night Football." He is the only commentator to call the Super Bowl, World Series,

NBA Finals and host the Stanley Cup Final for network television. Among his many accolades, Michaels has captured six Emmy Awards for Outstanding Sports Personality - Play-by-play (1986, 1989, 1995, 2000, 2007 and 2008) and has three times (1980, 1983 and 1986) received the NSSA Award from the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association; he was inducted into the NSSA Hall of Fame in 1998. Michaels was named Sportscaster of the Year in 1996 by the American Sportscasters Association, and, in 1991, he was named Sportscaster of the Year by the Washington Journalism Review.

The Sports Emmy® Award recipients were chosen by a Blue Ribbon Panel of industry peers. The awards recognize outstanding achievement by individuals and programs broadcast throughout the 2010 calendar year.

American Airlines is the official sponsors of the 32nd Annual Sports Emmy® Awards. Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal is the exclusive magazine partner.
